SUBJECT: CRIMINAL DEPORTATIONS ARE SCHEDULED TO RESUME

(SBU) Ralph Latortue, the Consul General of Haiti in Miami, met with the Ambassador on Tuesday, May 16 to discuss the resumption of criminal deportations. Latortue stated that he and the Interim Minister of Interior Magloire would travel to the United States this week and meet with the Department of Homeland Security in order to schedule the return of the first Justice Prisoner and Alien Transportation flight (J-PATS) since June 2005. (Note: PolOff has already received the list of deportees that will be on this flight. End Note.) Latortue anticipates that the first flight will arrive next week on Tuesday, May 23. He asked that press not be involved and the Ambassador assured him that the USG did not intend to do a press release.
